You can make two arrows for a picture.

The first day in the school is fun. Children go around the school.

Ms Sen is the teacher of Class I. She is in the classroom. She is happy. She will meet her new class today.

Ms Sen: Good Morning, children. My name is Mala Sen. I am your class teacher.

Class: Good Morning, teacher.

Ms Sen: Welcome to school. Come on! Let us form a line. We will go around your new school. Look, this is our Principal's Room. And this is the Music Room. We will come here on Monday and Tuesday.

Riti: Ma'am, what is that?

Ms Sen: That is the Library. We will come here to read storybooks on Wednesday and Thursday.

Riti: Oh! I love storybooks. My mother reads out books to me.

Ms Sen: Soon you will read books yourself.

Josh: Look, a playground! It has swings and a slide.

Ms Sen: Yes, that is your school playground. We will come here to play every day.

Jai: I like slides.

Anu: I love swings.

Deep: I will play football.

Ms Sen: That is nice! We will come here during playtime. Let us now go back to the classroom.

Ms Sen and the pupils return to the classroom.

Ms Sen: Please sit down.

Class: Thank you, Ma'am.

Ms Sen: Children, we will learn and play here. But first let us know each other.

Pretty Jolly

Jolly is now a big girl,
She is pretty and shy,
She has a new uniform;
and a nice new tie.

Pretty Jolly wakes up,
Before the sun's first ray,
She is going to school,
for the first time today.

Pretty Jolly fancies
that the school bell is ringing.
She dresses up and takes her bag,
And off she goes singing.
